Folio Notes

MARCH, 1970

VOLUME 11, NUMBER 3

There are several important announcements, but very little space to put them into. So, with apologies for the brevity, we'll proceed in order of importance. 1) Frank Millspaugh, WBAI's General Manager for the past four years, will be leaving the station during March. Until a new General Manager is decided upon, Bob Kuttner will be Acting Station Manager. There's not enough room to give him a proper eulogy, but let it suffice to say that we'll miss Frank very much and wish him the best of luck in whatever he plans to do. 2) The other Pacifica stations have already raised their subscription rates. WBAI wanted to avoid following their example, but the fact remains that inflation has skyrocketed our costs, and there has not been a sufficient increase in subscribers to compensate for the increased costs. Therefore, as of March 1, 1970, regular subscriptions will cost $24.00 and student/retired subscriptions $15.00. Renewals for current subscribers for the first full year will be $20.00 and $13.00 respectively. At this writing, we don't know the exact number of new subscriptions and renewals we'll need in March to meet our goals. But, please, we need your help desperately, so if you're due to renew in March, do it, and if you know any non-subscribers, tell them to subscribe. This is a plea from our hearts and our pocketbooks: WBAI is presently in a great state of confusion, poverty being only part of it. We're still located in two incompatible locations; construction, while imminent, has not started yet. We need all the help we can get, and we honestly think we deserve it. Our programming has improved enormously over the past few months and we want it to continue to improve and expand. Show your support by helping us financially, and do it soon. 3) Obviously, this is no Wonderful Big Expensive Folio like the February one. We've had to cut down listings to almost complete incoherence. So, check the Highlights Section, read your Folio carefully (what there is of it), and we promise to try to give you a more comprehensive one next time. 4) The cover of this Folio was kindly donated to WBAI by artist Bill Lee.

March Program Highlights

(Indicated by an * in the regular listings)

THE BATTLE OF THE TITANS

In honor of the 200th anniversary of the Master's Birth, we present each of the Beethoven symphonies performed twice, back to back, once with von Karajan and once with Bernstein. Take your pick. (3/1, 7, 8, 14, 15, 21, 22, 28, 29)

THE BALKAN FOLK MUSIC HOUR

Folk music from Southeastern Europe. These programs are from original field recordings, tapes, and records from the Balkans made and presented by Martin Koenig. (3/1, 15)

WHITHER SCIENCE FICTION?

A program exploring the possibility that science fiction is basically children's literature. Participants in this discussion are listed in the regular listings. (3/1)

AN INTERVIEW WITH MARGARET MEAD

Dr. Mead discusses the generation gap, which is the subject of her new book, Culture and Commitment. She also speaks on other interesting subjects, such as Pot, Woodstock, protest and the population explosion. The interviewer is Gil Jardine. (3/2)

BLACK THEATRE 2

The Afro-American Total Theatre Company in On Being Black in White America — a musical documentary on the Afro-American experience from the slave ship to the present. Directed by Hazel Bryant; produced by Gil Jardine. (3/6)

THE MIND'S EYE THEATRE: Romeo

and Juliet The Word Players in a splintered, fragmented version of the play as never envisioned by Zefirelli. It is perhaps, advisable to re-read the play before listening, and to come this version with no pre-conceptions of how Shakespeare should be done. In the cast: Romeo: Gil Jardine, David Haight and Edgar Walker; Juliet: Susan Miller, Sherry Pockwell, Ann Rivers and Julie Scherer. Music mix by Dan Kavanaugh. Production assistant: Ann Goldberg. Technical direction: David Lerner. Directed by the company from a conception by Baird Searles. STEREO (3/8)

CHALIAPIN

KPFA's Larry Jackson is an expert in the fields of Russian music and her musicians, past and present. We begin this month a continuing series of programs on perhaps the greatest basso of all times, Fyodor Chaliapin, produced and presented by Mr. Jackson. (3/8,20)

DAVID DELLINGER AND THE CONSPIRACY

Tom Moore is a student at the Columbia Graduate School of Journalism, and a resident of Chicago. He recorded this program at the house where Dellinger is staying during the trial. Dellinger talks about the larger political issues involved in the conspiracy trial and the attempts of the Nixon administration to force dissent back into traditional channels. (3/8)

THE HIP AND THE HYPE

All about the marketing of alternate culture; the short trip from the East Village to Madison Avenue, and freaky entrepreneurship. Produced by Bob Kuttner. (3/9)

NEW YORK CHILDREN'S PRISONS: Oliver Twist in the Empire State

They're called State Training Schools, but they seldom train or educate. Instead, they are places where juveniles whose parents don't have enough money or pull to get their children committed to private institutions are swept under the administration rug. The picture is not unrelievedly gloomy—only about 90% or so. Produced by Bill Schechner. (3/16)

THE PORT AUTHORITARIANS

The least understood and probably most powerful institution of government in New York is the Port Authority. Most New Yorkers think of it as a bus terminal. Actually, it is a state within a state. Produced by Bob Kuttner. (3/20)

ALLEN GINSBERG AT THE NEW SCHOOL. Poems and Songs.

Mr. Ginsberg sings and reads his poetry, both from The Planet News and from more recent inspirations, before an audience at the New School. (3/21,28)

TOM HAYDEN:

The Conspiracy Trial in Chicago

Tom Hayden, a founder of S.D.S. and one of the defendants in the Chicago Conspiracy Trials, delivered this address to a meeting of student chapter of the National Lawyer's Guild. (KPFA) (3/23)

THE MARRIAGE OF FIGARO

The Mozart opera performed at the Glyndebourne Festival and conducted by Fritz Busch, with: Roy Henderson; Aulikki Rautavaara, Heddle Nash, Audrey Mildmay, Willi Domgraf-Fassbaender, Italo Taro, N. Allin, Constance Willis, Luise Helletsgruber, Fergus Dunlop and Morgan Jones. (3/28)

THE LONG RUSSIAN WINTER #13: The Demon

Anton Rubinstein's opera, based on a poem by Lermontov, and completed in 1875. This program is part of an overly-extensive series tracing the development of Russian opera from its origins to the present, and produced by Kathy Dobkin. (3/29)
